

Carillion Caribbean award bursaries to Engineering Students

Case Record

Company Carillion Caribbean

Location Trinidad

Social Initiatives

Supporting local engineering students.

Carillion (Caribbean) Limited recently awarded two bursaries to deserving students of the Faculty of Engineering at the University of West Indies.

As part of its continued commitment to tertiary education in the region C(C)L has provided financial support to the UWI Development and Endowment Fund for the past nine years.

The recipients of the scholarships are selected by the University based on their academic performance in either Year 1 or 2.

The awards for 2001 to 2002 were presented to Juliet Romeo of Year 3 and Andesh Maharaj of Year 2 in the Faculty of Engineering.

On hand to congratulate the students were Martyn Palmer, Managing Director of Carillion's Capital Projects in the UK; Victor Cowan, Secretary of the UWI Development and Endowment Fund and Carillion's Regional Director, Iain Speirs.

Bernadette Green, of the British High Commission later thanked Carillion for the company's hospitality organising the visit, and for conducting a briefing on Carillion and its activities within the region.