Nina Davidson & Tizzy Bowman of Carillion Building, Westlink House, Brentford were invited to The Green School for Girls in Isleworth, West London to conduct mock interviews with Year 10 students.

The students were asked to choose a job to do to generate an income during their college days. They had a choice of several jobs including a shop assistant at M&S, receptionist at the Ramada Jarvis Hotel, Telesales at Brake Brothers, fast food chef at a local restaurant, waitress at Pizza Hut or office cleaner at GlaxoSmithKline.

Each student submitted a written application form & attended a ten-minute interview after which the interviewer gave marks for punctuality, appearance, demeanour, clarity of voice etc.

Most of the students displayed a great deal of confidence & maturity although some had "interesting" ideas on what to wear for interviews.

Other participating companies included the aforementioned companies.
